

We provide trainings throughout the year, to better equip our community with strong advocates who push for the rights of their loved ones with IDD. Past trainings have included guardianship, wills and trusts, Individualized Education Plans (IEPs), and Medicaid. We tailor the curriculum around relevant topics that our families are currently interested in, so please let us know if you have an idea for a workshop or program you believe will benefit self-advocates, parents, and caregivers.